

(To be sung by those auditioning for Cinderella and/or Quarantina.)

The Girls Do Nothing

I got two sisters you should see
They leave the housework all to me
You'd think sometimes they'd have a go
They always answer no no no

My sisters' always mean to me
And they're as lazy as can be
You'd think by now they ought to know
They always answer no no no

Do they wash up? Never wash up
Do they clean up? No, they never clean up
Do they brush up? Never brush up
They do nothing, the girls do nothing

Do they wash up? Never wash up
Do they clean up? No, she never cleans up
Do the brush up? Never brushed up
They do nothing, the girls do nothing
